IN THE HIGH COURT OF UTTARANCHAL
AT NAINITAL.

CIVIL REVISION NO. 210 OF 2001.
(Old No. 409 of 1988)

M/S Esskay Industries & others. …….. Applicants

Versus

State Bank of India & others …….. Respondents

HON'BLE RAJESH TANDON J:

Civil Revision has been transferred from Allahabad High Court.
None appears for either party.

I have perused the record.

The impugned order has been passed by the court of IV Additional Civil Judge, Dehradun by observing that the court fee has been insufficiently paid. The matter relates to the payment of court fee, the order being interlocutory in nature no interference can be made at this stage under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Aggrieved party can challenge the order in case the case is finally decided and not the appeal is preferred against the said order.

The revision is dismissed. No order as to costs.

Dated: Aug. 19 ,2004. (Hon'ble Rajesh Tandon J)
